

WALES
BLODEUO GYDA'R
RHS-CYMRU

CYMRU YN EI BLODAU 2017 WALES IN BLOOM

Judging criteria / Marking sheet (Class 17)

Name of Entry:	Class:
Judge:	Judging Date:

SECTION & CRITERIA	MARKS	ACTUAL
A: Overall aesthetics and cleanliness <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Plot is maintained in a clean and tidy manner. Maintained weed free unless complimentary vegetation is present, ie nettles for pollinators All equipment should be stored in an appropriate place No inappropriate matting should be present on site Pathways should be uncluttered, clear and accessible to all 	30
B: Horticultural Practices <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Good plant husbandry to carried out throughout the plot Crop vigour Complimentary planting schemes Plants should be pruned, harvested and maintained in line with best horticultural practice Where possible the elimination of the use of pesticides and herbicides should at all times be a priority Opportunity given onsite for the best use of organic matter Good plot management Evidence of seasonal planting schedules 	40
C: Bio-diversity and Environmental Benefits <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rainwater harvesting systems in place and operational Complimentary planting for pollinators and plant protection Mulching to preserve natural resources. Evidence of best practice when re-cycling plant production equipment and materials. 	20

D: Local Community Benefit
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evidence of seed swaps and plant shares Allotment forum. Allotment Committee. Educational Opportunities to local schools/scouts groups Participation in local community events, Fates and educational talks 		10
TOTAL		100
MEDAL AWARDED

JUDGES COMMENTS

-